Malvern Hill Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Malvern Hill, Va., April 22.—The public schools of the Harrison, Tyler and Chickahominy Districts of Charles City county, held a big "rally" at the courthouse on Saturday last. Although the weather was very threat-ning, a big crowd was present to listen to the talks given on educational subjects by Professor W. G. Coggin, superintendent of public in-struction in Charles City and New Kent counties; W. A. Nance and Nimmo Hubbard.

Miss Agnew, who is engaged in school work in Washington, D. C., made an interesting address on "Girls' Work in the Public Schools." There were six prizes of a $5 gold piece, each given to the successful contestant in sewing, cooking, an essay, wood work, running and jump-ing. A free dinner was served to all present.

A dance was given in the hall at Malvern Hill on Easter Monday by the young men. Among those present were Misses Attala, Virginia and May Walker, Emily Harrison, Carrie Kirkland Ruffin, from Charles City county; Ethel Morris and Mary Belle Moore, from Norfolk, Va.; Misses Bette, Van Pelt and Cooke, from Prince George county; Miss Sallie Harrison, from Cumberland county; E. Harrison, C. H. Carter, A. Johnson, D. Greeley, T. Clark, W. Pierce, M. Battle, F. Fennner, J. Van Pelt, K. Fennner, W. Johnson, W. West, S. West, Mr. Harrison, Mrs. M. E. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Saunders, of Richmond, arrived at their country place, Buckland's Stock Farm, on Wednesday, for a short visit.

Misses Ethel Morris and Mary Belle Moore, of Norfolk, Va., are the guests of the Misses Walker, at "The Glens."

Carl Ruggard and family, of Alberta,

Canada, have moved into this neighborhood, where they will engage in farming.Miss Sallie Harrison, of Cumberland county, is the guest of Mrs. E. C.

Wilmington Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Wilmington, N. C., April 22.—With three weddings, several dances and numerous receptions, Easter week was a brilliant one for Wilmington society. The week was ushered in Monday night with a big dance given by Mrs. Allan Nichols, in honor of Misses Grainger and Short. The event was not only of enjoyable nature, but of picturesque type, being given at the clubhouse of the Cape Fear Country Club. The large building was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and nearly a hundred young people partici-
